LONDON, Nov. 3.—With reference to the recent statement in the house of commons by Arthur J. Balfour, first of commons by Arthur J. Balfour, first-lord of the admiralty, regarding the raid by German torpedo craft in the English channel, a German official report received here repeats the for-mer assertion that all the German forpedo boats which participated in the enterprise returned to their base and that none of them was damaged by artillers fire by artillery fire.

FEDERAL RESERVE REPORT

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The federal reserve board's monthly business summary announced today that general conditions in all federal reserve districts of the country were satisfactory. Labor shortage was reported by nearly all the districts agants and most of them referred to the increasing cost of living. A summary of the reports says in part:

Kansas City: Unabated business activity; high prices offsetting reduced agricultural production. Wholesalers, relatiers, jobbers and manufacturers working to capacity. General shortage of labor; some concern expressed over the future when the present abnormal conditions have passed.

Dallas: Conditions continue satisfactory. Heavy wholesale and retail buring, good collections; exceedingly satisfactory fail trade. Reports, however, show advance in prices of necessities being seriously felt, without aporeciable increase in wages.

San Francisco: Business conditions

With the farning of the tide on the western battlefields there was maturally a disposition here to feel that hostilities soon would be over. The officers and men of the army do not share these views, however, and are constantly cautioning the people at home against the local that the issue will be settled within the next few months.

From conversations with scores of officers familiar with the situation at the front it can be stated that they do not expect the war to end at the earliest before next autumn. Fried Fish

Fried Fish

Fry perch, trout, butter fish, smeits, herring and other small pan fish whole. Cut large fish in inch thick slices, and two or three inches square flounders and bass, strip off the fiesh each side of bone in long fillets, divide in nalves and roll up toward tip. Remove skin and bones as much as possible from sliced fish: wipe dry, roll in bread crumbs or fine meal, then in beaten egg and then in crumbs and fry in deep Cottolene, hot enough to brown a bit of bread while you count sixty. Drain well before serving. Or simply cover with sensoned meal and brown on each side in hot Cottolene in frying pan.
